

Since the NJ Do-Not-Call law went into effect, the quality of our life has improved substantially. Prior to the law, we were constantly bombarded by harassing telemarketers and frequent hang-ups. Some telemarketers responded to "not interested" with a return call blowing a very loud whistle into the phone. Others merely cursed when told "not interested." Please allow the state of NJ to protect its citizens from such harassment.